MR. PANEBAKER

Not only is Mr. Panebaker the principal of L. H. S., but also a man of innumerable community and state interests. Despite these tremendous demands on his energies, he has maintained high standards we are proud of—scholastically, athletically, and spiritually. He always finds time to guide students who need help in college entrance and preparation for life work.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The conscientious and thoughtful consideration given to our school by each of the Board members will always be appreciated by the students and faculty. Flourescent lighting, pastel classrooms, immaculate grounds, and an all-round efficient school reflect their sincere interest.

Dr. Anthony Raffa, Benjamin Levy, William V. Mauer, President, H. Nelson Krum, Mrs. Albert Hadden.

MR. ANDERSON

Comptroller of the finances for the Board of Education, Mr. Anderson is an important cog in our school life.

MRS. IDA HASBROUCK

GUIDANCE

A helping hand, a guiding word, a true friend—we'll always remember Mrs. Hasbrouck, our guidance director.

OFFICE STAFF, HEALTH HOME ECONOMICS INDUSTRIAL ARTS

The many important office duties are handled by Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Walter. Anyone feeling wheezy or foggy can swiftly be cured by our nurse, Mrs. Diffin. Teeth shine from the expert care of Miss Pankewski. Mrs. Stephens, who replaced Mrs. Dunham late this year, teaches the arts of cooking, sewing, home nursing, and interior decorating. Mr. Burnham and Mr. AuClair train future metal and wood workers.

First row—Mrs. Lorraine Stephens, B. S., Plattsburg S. T. C.; Mrs. Grace Diffin, Certificate of Public Health Nursing, Syracuse University; Mrs. Grant, B. S., State Teachers College, Plattsburg, Mrs. Hansen, B. M., Syracuse University. Standing—Miss Irene Pankewski, Eastman Dental School of Hygienics, Cortland S. T. C.; Mr. Garfield Burnham, B. S., Oswego State; Mr. Ernest AuClair, B. S., Oswego State, M. S., Cornell University.

Mr. Arthur Carver, B. A., Cornell University; Miss Frances English, B. S., Buffalo State Teachers' College, M. S., New York State College for Teachers; Mr. Morris Gerber, A. B., M. A., State Teachers' College, Albany, New York; Mrs. Hannah Calhoun, B. S., Plattsburg State Teachers' College, New York University; Mr. Matthew Gadziala, B. S., New York State College for Teachers, M. A., Columbia University.

SOCIAL STUDIES AND BUSINESS

We'll always remember Mrs. Calhoun typing copy for Comment, Mr. Carver and his inimitable jingles and Mr. Gerber with his record as a Liberty basketball star. We try to imagine Mr. Gadziala having trouble with his income tax return and Miss English with the Daily News.

ENGLISH, LIBRARY AND LANGUAGES

We'll remember Miss Manley and Mrs. Dowling for "Twelfth Night" at New Paltz; Miss Rice for the hectic days of the Senior Play; Mr. Lutri for his orations on Cicero; Miss Shipka for the quiet library; Miss Mauer for her stories of Don Quixote and Cyrano de Bergerac.

Seated—Miss Ethel Rice, B. W. E., Syracuse University; Miss Marguerite Mauer, B. A., Skidmore, M. A., Middlebury; Miss Andrea Manley, B. A., New Jersey College for Women, M. A., Rutgers University; Miss Helen Shipka, B. S., Geneseo State Teachers' College. Standing—Mrs. Eugenie Dowling, Ph. B., University of Chicago, M. A., Columbia University; Mr. Salvatore Lutri, B. A., City College of N. Y., M. A., Columbia University.

SCIENCE and MATHEMATICS

Can you imagine Miss Knoll's jubilation if everyone knew his theorems? Or Mr. Van Slyke with a winning J. V.? Or Mr. New without his animals? Or Mr. Hansen's chemistry class all passing? Or Mrs. New's conservation class being dull?

Seated—Miss Ruth Knoll, Oneonta State Normal, B. S., New York University; Mr. John New, B. S. and M. S., Cornell University; Mrs. Elizabeth New, B. S. and M. S., Cornell University. Standing—Mr. Robert Van Slyke, B. S., St. Lawrence University; Mr. George Hansen, B. S., Michigan State Normal.

Seated—Mr. John Mogle, B. S., Edinboro State Teachers' College; Mr. Charles Witherwax, B. S., Westchester State Teachers' College, M. S., Ithaca. Standing—Mr. Mario Lentricchia, B. S., New York University, M. S., Ithaca College; Miss Carolyn Styles, B. A., B. Mus. Ed., Oberlin College. Inset—Miss Dorothy King, B. S., Cortland State Teachers' College.

GYM, ART AND MUSIC

Mr. Mogle's "whisperings" in crafts class—strenuous "exercise stunts" directed by Miss King—the "winning" ways of Mr. Witherwax. These and all the Saturday band and orchestra rehearsals called by Mr. Lentricchia and "let's try it just once more" of Miss Styles, are impressions we'll carry through the years ahead.

CAFETERIA

Miss Hoos, Miss Green, Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Labouseur, Mrs. Brundage.

At 12:10 each school day a delightful variety of healthful dishes awaits students who work up an appetite while visiting on the serpentine line along the halls. Guided by Miss Hoos and four assistants, the cafeteria has completed ten years of taste-tempting service.

MAINTENANCE

For books left in the Library or locked home rooms the Maintenance Staff is willing to give co-operation.

Liberty High School is always in tip-top shape. These men take pride in helping to create pleasant working conditions for students and faculty.

John Blume, Paul Johannsen, George Hutchinson, Jack Phillips, Claude Cogswell.

"INNER WILLY"
1951 Junior Play

TOMMIE KILLIAN

Tommie Killian completed his high school course at home. Some of us hardly knew him until he came to our Senior Banquet. Then we learned to admire his sense of humor and his determination to finish a job despite odds.

MARTHA ROBIN "jumped the gun" and has been away at college this winter, thanks to a summer session.

JEAN WATKINS departed in February for Oregon. BROOKE ELGIE, (a camera enthusiast who left us films of everybody but Brooke) departed sadly for Albany in March. We were sorry to see them go.

JUNIOR PLAY

First Row—Miss Ruth Knoll, N. Deutsch, T. Smith, R. Halpner, B. Baker, J. Skolnick, S. Litwin, F. Conklin, E. Bell, S. Novick, G. Boyer, B. Mikalauskas, G. Benton, M. Cantor. Second Row—E. Trips, J. Lindsley, P. Sullivan, C. Wattenberg, J. Lavelle, E. Haiss, P. Hellman, R. Wyman, J. McDermott, F. Edwards, K. Grant, J. Hemmer, G. Ordin, S. Wermick, A. Scheibe. Third Row—Mr. Van Slyke, S. Sokoloff, M. Hill, M. Delamater, M. Inman, M. Tompkins, G. Yaeger, M. Schulze, F. Radicchi, J. Heidt, I. Bailey, L. Delamater, J. Clark, M. Melnick, F. Gehrt, J. Phillips.

JUNIOR CLASS

Under the leadership of President Lee Owens, Vice-President Richard Landry, Secretary Louise Delamater, and Treasurer Robert Martini, the Junior Class has proven they will make a well-liked and hard-working Senior Class. They produced wonderful class parties, "Just Imagine" as Freshmen and "Gopher Junction" as Sophomores. As our yearbook goes to press they are diligently working on "Riddle Me Riches," the Junior Play which promises to be a great success.

"GOOD LUCK," Seniors of 1953.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Wonderful! Great! These were comments overheard after the Sophomore Class Party, "KREMLIN KAPERS." With Mr. Carver as Advisor and President Jimmy Brinkerhoff, Vice-President James Delamater, Secretary Barbara Decker and Treasurer Sharon White, the Sophomores have succeeded in getting even the hard-boiled Seniors to admire them. They have come through the hardest two years in high school—when one is nothing but a lowly underclassman—with flying colors and we know that they will do even better in the future.

First Row—Miss English, Mrs. Dowling, S. White, E. Davis, E. Waldas, J. Comfort, F. Taylor, P. Levine, E. Gishman, N. Paglino, J. Koundlo, V. Bailey, R. Greenberg, I. Steinberg, C. Houghtaling, A. FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshmen "Greenies" showed early that they knew their way around. In September they elected Barry Sinowitz, President; Warren Grund, Vice-President; Carol Doetsch, Secretary; and Carmen DiFranco, Treasurer. Guided by Miss Mauer everyone went along gleefully with "Freshman in Paris."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Snowballs—a great invention but not around school! This year, assisted by Miss Knoll, the Student Council set up the much-needed Snowball Patrol. The Clothing Drive was a tremendous success. A total of eighty-three bags exceeded last year's by fifteen. Another main accomplishment was the checkroom concession allotted to the Junior Class. These activities were promoted by the representatives from the high school homerooms who democratically made regular weekly reports to their constituents.

HONOR SOCIETY

Ultimate achievements of students are recognized by election to this society. The initiates into this organization receive the greatest honor Liberty High offers students.

SAFETY PATROL

"Single file, single file, all I hear is single file!" is a familiar chant of every student in Liberty High School. This is the code of the Safety Patrol.

Mr. Hansen's "special police," as they are sometimes called, are chosen according to character, leadership, and scholarship. One of the most democratic organizations in the school, S. P. has taken on the job of supervising fellow students, a job heretofore carried out by the teachers.

This year's captain, Vera Sears, and her five able-bodied lieutenants, Keith Gilmour, Allan Siegel, Joan Heidt, Paul Killian, and Eva Porter, help make L. H. S. a model school.

COMMENT

Want to read about sports? Music? Books? Feature stories? Outstanding LHS events? Pick up the "Comment" and be fully entertained no matter what your taste.

A conference at Columbia University (address by President Truman!) was the outstanding activity.

QUILL and SCROLL

"Quill and Scroll Talent Show" presented an opportunity for all of Liberty High's hidden talent to be displayed. Cowboy singers, tap dancers, mysterious travelers, and even "Alley Cats" turned out top entertainment.

The marvelous response to the talent show meant a luxurious banquet for the society.

BAND

The Memorial Day Parade, concert at Livingston Manor High School, Hyde Park Festival, and a joyful Christmas program were the highlights of the band's activities. The apt leadership of Mr. Lentricchia has been rewarded by the band's excellent playing at school assemblies, football and basketball games.

DANCE BAND

In 1951-52 we crooned and swooned to the tunes of "Tell Me Why" and "Cry." "Sin" and "Slow Poke" also made the Hit Parade. The L. H. S. Dance Band, directed by Mr. Lentricchia, soothed our souls after basketball clashes when victors and vanquished danced to sweet melodies.

Gayly decorated, well organized and an ideal place to find the answer to any question based on fact: this is the L. H. S. Library.

To accommodate the L. H. S. student body with courtesy and a personal touch is a challenging task.

With the diligent aid of the Library Club, whose members often supervise the library, Miss Helen Shipka makes our library an oasis for students seeking refreshing moments in a busy day.

Assisted by Miss Mauer, this club of Spanish students plans amusing and informative entertainment by celebrating Spanish holidays. This year a trip to New York City was planned.

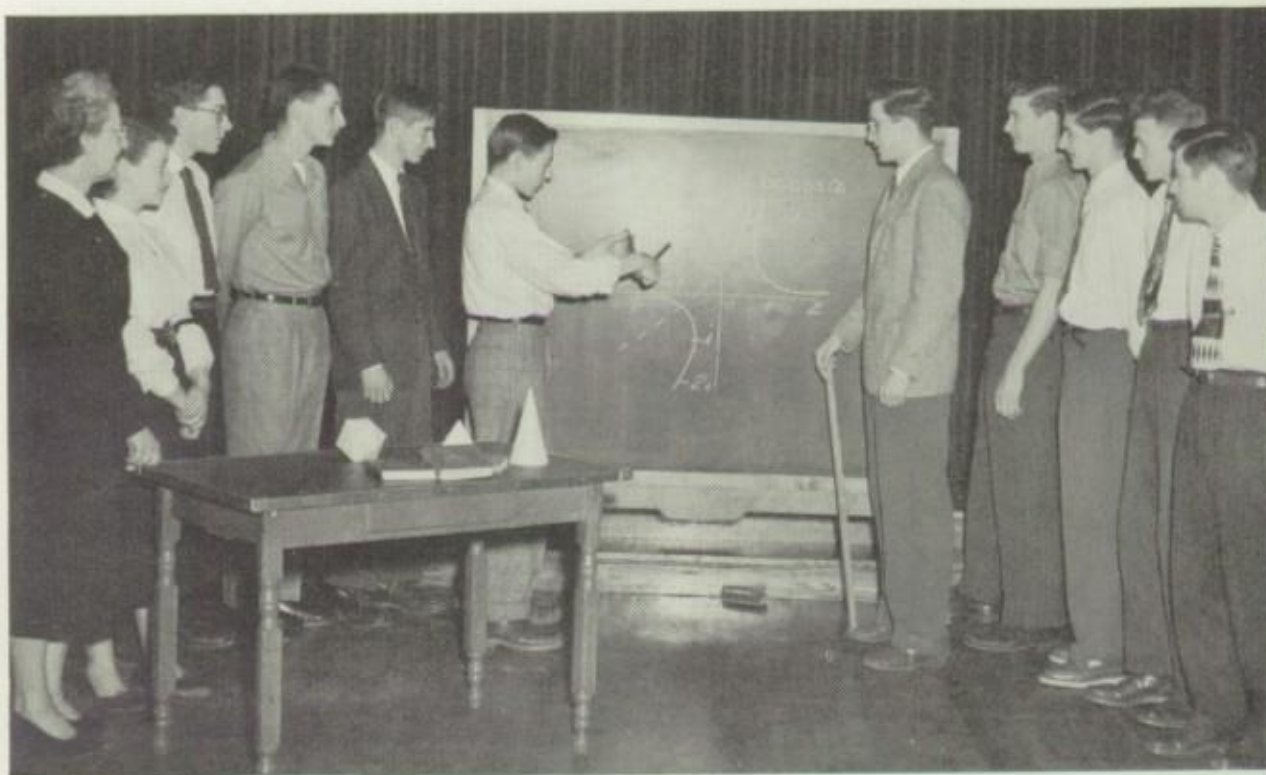

M. Yarish, A. Canzano, F. Bartholomew, C. DiFranco, Mr. Mogel, J. Sloves, B. Decker, L. Owens, D. Fraser.

ART CLUB

"Busy Bees." That's the name for members of the Art Club. Mr. Mogel, chief engineer supervising the construction of puppets, has been helping girls and boys in carving. Next year, with the cooperation of the Library Club, a puppet show is planned.

MATH CLUB

Slide rules, the sextant, and problems given by the Pi Mu Epsilon Interscholastic Mathematics Contest are all fun for Math Club "eager beavers." Plans are formed for a contest sponsored by the Mathematical Association of America in May. Miss Ruth Knoll, faculty advisor, is their bright star.

Miss Knoll, B. Baker, L. Meiselman, H. Shavell, H. Kreindler, R. Prepost, E. Schroeder, W. Costello, C. Deretchin, R. Landry, J. Margelefsky.

CHARM CLUB

Does anyone want a fancy hair-do? A new face? A few tips on fashion? Don't ask Emily Post—don't ask Mary Donnally! Charm Club members can give you all the answers.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Lights! Camera! Action! 9:05 A. M. in room 26 on a Wednesday morning. The Dramatic Club of Liberty High School under the very able guidance of Miss Ethel Rice is once again producing a play that takes weeks of study on make-up, stage direction, pantomime, and acting.

Its title may be "At Night All Cats Are Gray," a mystery given at Fallsburgh, "Moon Up," a drama given at Monticello, or "Her First Party Dress," a comedy given at Ellenville. The last also came before the footlights of Liberty High School.

The Dramatic Club, with Carlyle Fischer as president, Stanley Fox, vice-president, Lucille Scarvalone, secretary, and Dorothy Zolchonock, treasurer, has provided many Thespian thrills for all students.

First Row—L. Olkin, B. Rothblatt, D. Zolchonock, S. Fox, C. Fischer, R. Fried, L. Scarvalone, Miss Ethel Rice. Second Row—E. Porter, T. Stoddard, J. J. Brady, C. Norton, L. Meiselman, C. Friedman.

THESPIANS

The goal of amateur actors in L. H. S. is initiation into the Thespian Honor Society.

To meet the requirements of this group, a student must be in the upper half of his class and show the qualities of promptness, willingness and co-operation in regard to all dramatic work.

Feeling runs high in Debate Club. Wasting no time, Miss Andrea Manley, Debate Coach, helps the group to gain skill in public speaking and knowledge of national affairs.

The varsity team won a gold trophy at Cortland and the inexperienced team won a banner in competition at Newburgh.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Needy children of the Marshall Plan countries will gratefully remember the seventy-five packages sent to them by Liberty High's Junior Red Cross. Wounded veterans also received a Christmas note of cheer in the form of an album of records and 50 gift boxes. Miss English guides the course of this charity-minded club.

GIRLS' GYM CLUB

Push-ups and competitive tests reserve membership in this flourishing club for the fittest females only! We gleefully checked our shoes at the entrance of "Bear Foot Lodge." Colorful socks danced on the polished floor. After a full evening of round and square dances, holes revealed dancers' toes, and Laughter confirmed Mirth as a boon companion to L. H. S. students.

BOYS' GYM CLUB

L. H. S. supermen enjoy the Gym Club which allows for fun in touch football, ping pong, basketball, softball, and tumbling.

MIXED CHORUS

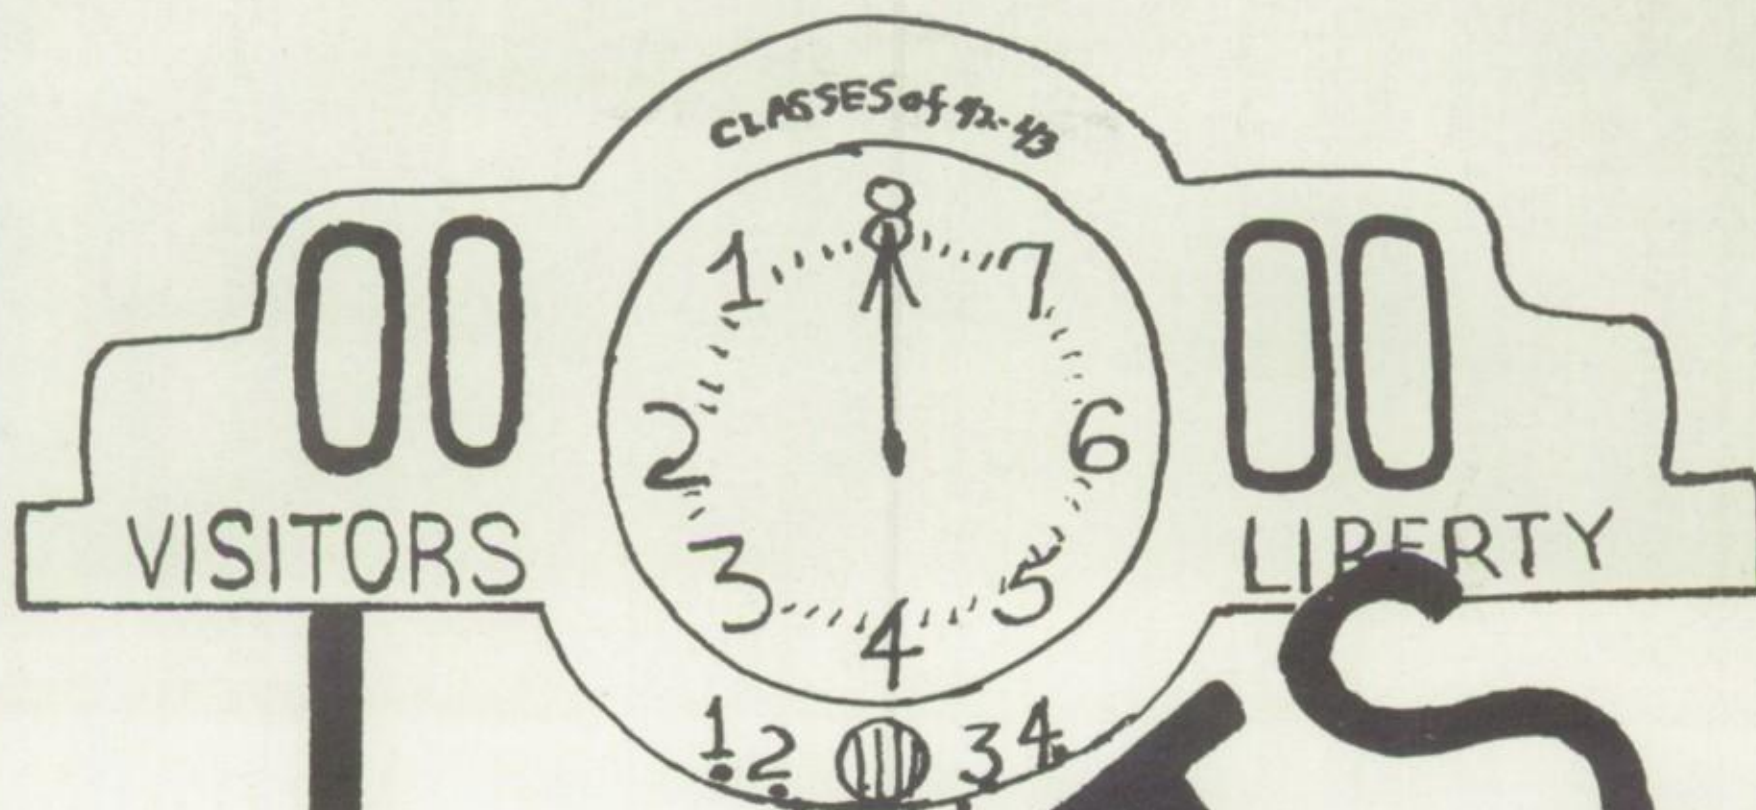

Motto—We build strong voices. The enthusiastic directing hand of Miss Styles led to a very successful Christmas program and annual spring concert.

BIOLOGY CLUB

Squeaking gray field mice, chattering red squirrels, crawling pine snakes—name any specimen and the members of the Biology Club can produce it. Under the enthusiastic direction of Mr. New, field trips enable the members to understand animal habitats. We'll always remember the cages with possums "Herman" and "Ulysses."

First Row—R. Hlaung, J. Kovadlo, M. Levine. Standing—J. Driscoll, Mr. New, R. Miller, J. Hill.

FOOTBALL

From the first day of school our husky athletes, led by Captain Tom Miller, were running down to Coach Witherwax's office, ready for an austere training program. Both Coach Witherwax and Coach Nikifor were pleased with the season, especially since Tom Miller, John Beasley, and Louis Rosh were the only lettermen reporting for fall training.

Our hearty athletes roasted at Goshen, swamped Highland (the first time in six years), and made mud pies at Arlington. "Grundy" was the smallest quarterback in this part of the state. The "Tribe" gave us many unforgettable football thrills.

In 1951 the "Liberty Indians," led by Co-captains Wayne Mauer and Robert Orseck, conquered Monticello, but subsequently lost three "Duso" heart-breakers. Beginning 1952, the "Liberty Five" started to pick up. After winning three games, luck changed.

Coach Gerber's team terminated with five wins and ten losses. Four games were lost by a total of eight points; two games went into the overtime period.

Five high scorers have played their last game of high school basketball; Wayne Mauer with 301 points; Jack Fraser, 151 points; Bob Orseck, 106 points; Earle White, 63 points; and Tom Miller, 54 points. Luke Dowe, a Junior, with 122 points will have to carry on tradition.

BASEBALL

Although, in 1952, our team may be a far cry from 1951's Village Duso champs, it will by no means be a mediocre squad. Coach Witherwax is confident that last year's record (in which we defeated everyone on our schedule except Fallsburgh) may be repeated. Liberty shared first place in the league with Fallsburgh, and then went on to defeat them for the championship.

We have veterans T. Miller, A. Siegel, and L. Dowe with us in 1952 and as we go to press, prospects look good.

TRACK

In 1952 Liberty had a strong track squad. Two graduates, Chet Pelsang (220 yard dash at 22.6 seconds) and Jerry Tauber (hurdles at 22.9 seconds) broke previous track records. Edison Schroeder topped in High Jump with 5' 7".

The veterans that will return to this year's forceful team are: Tommy Miller, Edison Schroeder, Bobby Pando, Seymour Hoffer, Irwin Hoffer, Gerry Klemm, Leonard Steinberg, Allan Topper and Heino Frey. We hope this season promises continued success.

WRESTLING

Rough and Ready Hansen's "Leapin' Louis," "Wrestling Rich," "Sleepy Schroeder," and "Woodchuck Wes" turned in good returns in this ancient sport. Key locks, bear hugs, and head pressure techniques made this squad formidable. One minute and a half to pin a man down in the Suffern match dropped to a thirty-three second win from Cornwall. Growing interest was evident in large audiences and alert interest of the student body.

GOLF

The Liberty High School Golf team had one of its poorest seasons as it dropped seven matches while winning only one contest in the fast competition Duso League.

The Indians finished strong, however, at the Section 9 tournament at the Osiris Club at Walden, where they finished a creditable third among the eight teams competing, and had two players, Allen (Skippy) Atkins and William Hasbrouck, qualify among the low four in the section, making them eligible for the State Intersectional Championships at Newburgh.

Lettermen included seniors Allen Atkins and Isham Van Keuren, plus Earle White, Richard (Mike) Hartman and William Hasbrouck who form the nucleus of this year's squad. In addition to playing in the Duso League, two new local teams, Roscoe and Livingston Manor will be met on a home-and-home basis.

CHEERLEADING

The flash of red and white enlivened Liberty's athletic clashes. Highlighting 1952 was the pep squad organized by Donna Wilson. This group of 6th, 7th, and 8th graders added to the volume of the cheering section.

In the football season all the girls belonged to one squad. During basketball the girls voted for two squads. Marge Tompkins and Joan Clark captained Varsity and Junior Varsity squads.

On March 22 the varsity cheerleaders attended the Mid-Hudson Cheering Meet at Livingston Manor. Here they were rated high on poise, appearance, voice and other fundamentals—facts we can well understand.

A black and white photograph capturing a dynamic moment during a basketball game. In the center, a player wearing a light-colored jersey with the number 13 is suspended in mid-air, performing a jump shot. His arms are extended upwards, and the basketball is visible near his hands. To his right, a player in a dark jersey with 'ASTORIA 41' printed on it is also jumping, attempting to block the shot. The background shows a gymnasium with spectators seated in bleachers, and other players are visible on the court. The lighting is bright, typical of an indoor sports arena.

GIRLS

SPORTS

GIRLS' SPORTS

This was an active year in the L. H. S. Girls' Sports Association. 1951 started on the right foot literally with a sock dance, "Bare Foot Lodge." The girls achieved an astonishing advertising campaign. Three sports during the school year constitute minimum requirements. Play-days take the place of competitive sports.

Interest is stimulated by awards. Gold charms are scarce and treasured mementos of superior skill in all sports.

BOYS' SPORTS

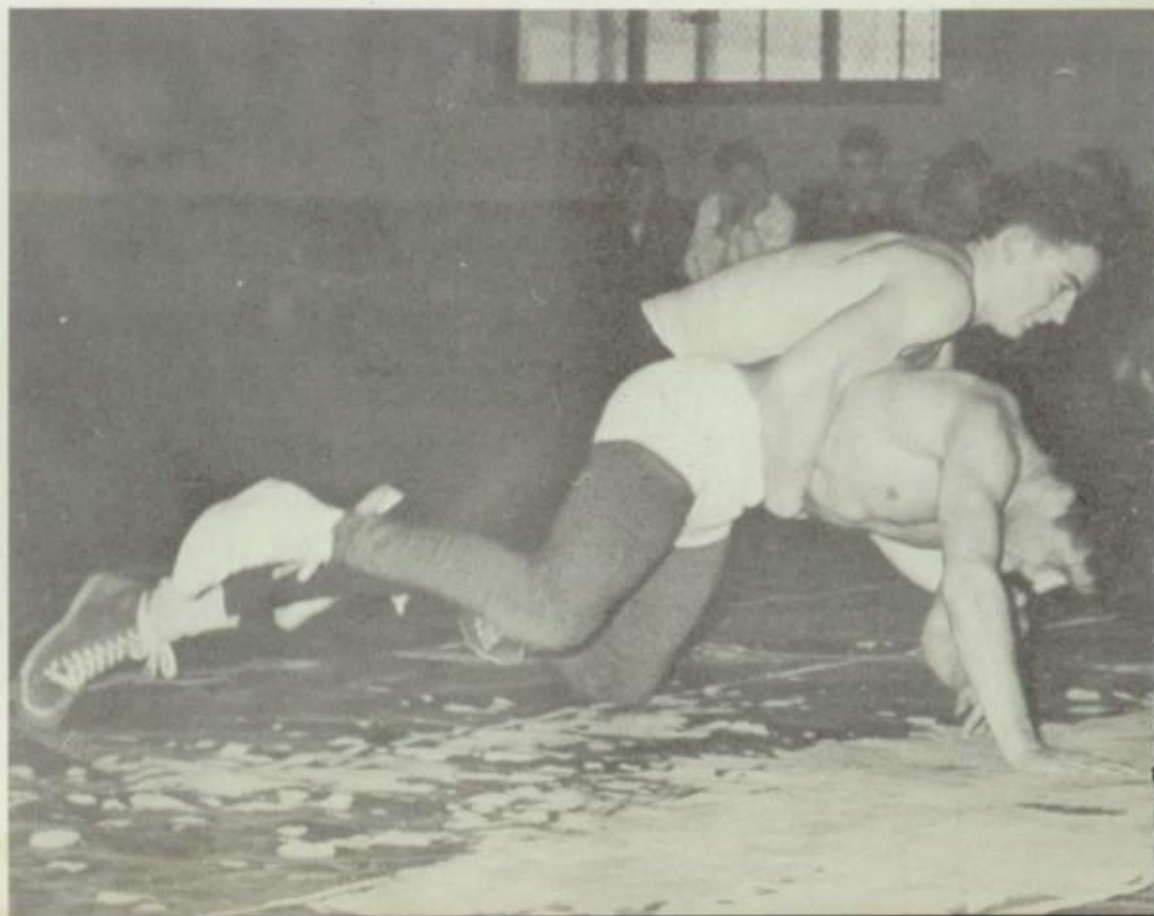

From September to the closing of school in June, one sees boys running laps and doing calisthenics to get in shape for sports. Boys sports are the major activities in Liberty High School.

Boys enjoy being on the athletic field, throwing passes, making tackles and many other things to get in shape for football. At the end of a tough football season the boys start on basketball and wrestling.

With the blossoming of spring, the practice begins for baseball and track. While some boys walk their girl friends home, these boys work hard to bring glory to L. H. S.

In minor sports are volleyball, ping pong, bowling, golf, and badminton. All these sports help to liven up the school year along with other activities.

We of the present hope that the boys of the future will keep the spirit shining for L. H. S. as was done in the past.

Chronicle of The Class of 1952

Now that we, the class of '52, approach graduating from Liberty High School, we stop to reminisce our experiences since we became freshmen at Liberty High School.

In our freshman year Richard Prepost and Tim Stoddard were class president and vice-president. Irene Keator became secretary and Polly Ann Keller was elected treasurer of our non-existent funds.

To start our career with a bang, the "Freshman Frolic" was presented. Thanks to Miss Mauer and Mr. Carver, this venture proved a financial success. In fact, we made more money than any previous class.

We shall always remember Dan (Charles Norton) trying to ask Myrtle (Betty Reed) to accompany him to a party. Tim Stoddard was busy giving free advice. After learning how the cavemen, the Romans, and Romeo and Juliet did it, Dan mustered enough courage to ask Myrtle. Jokes, by Robert Orseck, and singing by the "Hour of Charm" made the entire party one to be remembered.

Our Sophomore year featured Tim Stoddard as president and Paul Killian, vice-president; Irene Keator and Polly Ann Keller were both re-elected. The class party, "Winter Holiday," had a Christmas theme. Plays and skits were enacted by Eva Porter, Dawne Bullock, Timothy Stoddard, William Schmidt, William Kramer, Richard Prepost, Alfred Stoeckli, John Fraser and Polly Ann Keller. Christmas carols were sung amid a Stoddard Ivory Flakes snowstorm. This party boosted our morale, but not our treasury.

Finally we found ourselves no longer lower classmen. This chapter began with Ted Koscijanski as president and Vera Sears vice-president. Irene Keator commenced her third term as secretary. Vicki Garfinkel was elected class treasurer. At the end of the first semester, Vicki was seized by graduating ambitions and Earle White became treasurer.

Our first dramatic venture, "The Inner Willy," was directed by Mrs. Dowling. Willoughby (Tim) was constantly pestered as well as encouraged by his inner self (Charles Norton) who popped into the picture out of thin air.

With the play behind us our next enterprise was a circus party entitled "The Big Top." The many wonderful side shows made money roll in affluently.

Charles Norton and Mary Scheibe proved master politicians by triumphing over Killian-Katz and Sears-Gehrt for Student Council bosses.

This year Ted Koscijanski and Vera Sears traded executive posts. The year started successfully with the magazine drive, in which the sales nearly tripled those of the previous years, and won us a beautiful bronze plaque. Tim Stoddard and Seymour Hoffer were high salesmen.

The "Mother Was a Freshman" senior play was produced in November under Miss Rice's direction. Dawne Bullock and Jiggs Brady made temperatures rise sky high.

Next on our schedule was a Christmas Dance. The Art Room was cluttered with marshmallows, toothpicks, and glitter for weeks. Amid stars and the music of Cy Plotkins' Orchestra, "Stardust Fantasy" came into being.

Our yearbook went to press the end of March and our Senior Prom was slated for May 10. Graduation was the evening of June 24.

Junior Red Cross Starts on Last Project For Year

The Junior Red Cross has started its last large project for this year. This will be to send 75 gift boxes overseas. These boxes will cost about a dollar each and the box itself is red, white and blue. Each box contains soap, a tooth brush and paste, needle and thread, pencils, crayons, pads and a notebook, and some toys such as balls or yo-yos.

Preparing these boxes are Wilma Massopust, who was interviewed at the examination for the State Director of Teachers in the State.

Boxes for Children

The boxes are for school children in the war-torn countries of Western Europe and Japan. Inside each box there is a letter form giving the name and address of our school and a place for the recipient to write back and tell us about his school. If, after this project is completed there is any money left in the Junior Red Cross treasury, it will be used to buy phonograph albums for veterans' hospitals.

Ordin Takes Post

Since Jean Watkins, who was president of the Junior Red Cross has left LHS, Gretchen Ordin, who has been vice-president, took over the rest of the school year. She will serve the project.

Scheduled Hasbrouck announced had received acceptance for Career Day scheduled for March 27, 1952. Speakers include Mr. Leonard James Shedd, Department of Accountancy at Rider College; James Shedd, New York, chairman of Beauty Culture, Newburgh, New York, and Dr. George Sherrie, Coordinator of Field Services, State University College for Teachers at Buffalo. There will be some twenty speakers for Career Day.
